Our New Wins! — Comstor Singapore and M&I Electric Far East

Comstor, a division of Westcon Group Inc., one of the world's most successful and dynamic specialty distributor of advanced technology solutions, has chosen Microsoft Dynamics CRM 4.0 to help them achieve a complete solution with seamless integration to their existing IT investment and to generally align and facilitate their internal business processes, marketing and manage their post sales activities. Having started in August 2008, this project is expected to go 'Live' in January 2009.

M&I Electric Far East, a member of Oakwell Group of Companies has selected Microsoft Dynamics CRM 4.0 for better customer management and improve operation efficiency with the ability to manage technician scheduling and job assignment. This project will kick off in November 2008 and go live in 4 weeks.

Watch this space for more information about the project's successful implementation.

Chong Lee Leong Seng (CLLS) and NUS Business School has gone 'LIVE!'

CLLS and the NUS Business School have both chosen Microsoft Dynamics CRM 4.0 to help them achieve Customer Relationship Management solution they have been looking for.

CLLS implemented Microsoft Dynamics CRM 4.0 in just 8 weeks ('live' in August 2008) and is now able to have a consolidated view of their customer's information and project activities. NUS Business School on the other hand, uses Microsoft Dynamics CRM 4.0 to have a unified solution wherein they can share data across departments thus can better manage their customers. MBA department has gone 'live' since September, 2008 and other departments are expected to go 'live' in the coming weeks.
